Clear Creek State Park

Clear Creek State Park encompasses 1,901 acres in Jefferson County. In addition to spending the night, visitors can enjoy swimming, kayaking, canoeing, fishing, hiking, and wildlife watching in the beautiful valley.

Nearly four miles of the Clarion River flow through the park. The Clarion River is designated a National Wild and Scenic River for its scenic beauty, water quality, and archaeological significance. Many sections of the river provide a glimpse into the past. Since the river was used as a transportation route, signs of settlements are located along the river banks. Because river corridors are natural transportation routes, the Clarion River hosts a great diversity of plants and animals.

The cabin area has two yurts with excellent river views and 22 rustic cabins. Smaller cabins allow family and friends to have close but separate cabins, while the various larger cabins provide a unique experience for each visit. These facilities are available for rent each year from mid-April to mid-December. Each facility has a table with benches, refrigerator, stove, microwave, electric or propane heat, electricity, porch, fire ring with grill, and picnic table. Some rustic cabins also have a porch fireplace. Rustic cabins and yurts do not have running water or bathrooms, but a water hydrant is outside each facility. Showers and restrooms are in the cabin area. Cabins 13 and 18 are ADA accessible. Although they are not fully accessible, cabins 4, 11, 20, and 21 have a ramp to access the facility. Cabins 10-13 permit up to two dogs.

Within the cabin area is the visitor center, playground, firewood sales area, and amphitheater. A boat launch area is also available for canoes and kayaks to access the Clarion River Water Trail.
