Yellow Creek State Park

The lodging area on the north side of Yellow Creek Lake has six camping cottages and four yurts available for rent from early April to early November. They sleep five guests in single bunk beds and double/single bunk beds. Yurts and camping cottages have a dining table and chairs,microwave, porch/deck, picnic table, fire ring, electric heat, lights, and outlets. Yurts also have a stovetop and refrigerator. Camping cottages and yurts do not have running water. There are restrooms with warm showers and water spigots nearby. All facilities in the lodging area are ADA accessible. Dogs are only permitted at Yurt D and Cottages 1, 2, and 3. There are firewood sales and a private dock/mooring area for those with reservations. A playground, pavilions, fishing pier, boat launch, and public mooring area are nearby.

Guests should bring sheets, blankets or sleeping bags, pillows, etc.; all cooking, serving, and eating utensils; coffee pot; toaster; toiletries; containers to carry water; and dishpans. Tents, camping trailers, and RVs are prohibited in the lodging area.

MINIMUM/MAXIMUM STAY: Yurts have a two-night minimum and a 14-night maximum stay in the non-peak season. In the peak summer season, the second Friday in June to the third Friday in August, rentals are weekly (Friday to Friday).

Camping cottages have a two-night minimum stay year round. They have a 14-night maximum stay in the peak summer season and a 21-night maximum stay in the non-peak season.

RESERVATIONS: Lodging in Pennsylvania state parks can be reserved 11 months to three days before the day of arrival. If it is two days or less before the arrival date, call the state park to inquire about availability.

For reservations, visit the Pennsylvania State Parks Reservation Center at http://pennsylvaniastateparks.reserveamerica.com, or call 888-PA-PARKS (888-727-2757), Monday through Saturday, 7:00 AM to 5:00 PM.
